Time to Look After the Trade

The recent Christmas season has given some indication of the manner in which business and trade can be expected to respond to the changing conditions. There has been a large volume of trading, the restraint of war times has been relieved and business is going to go ahead with greater bounds than ever.

It is not to be interpreted as meaning that trade stimulation is going to be obtained without effort. The buyers are going to look to advertising to give them needed help. It has always brought responses when wisely used and it can be depended upon to do its part in the future. The business man who fortifies himself by opening a strong advertising committee and annealing the strong advertising committee.

Mr. Loomis held that the proposed amendment never had been properly passed upon by congress, in that two-thirds of the membership of each house had not voted for it. He disputed rulings of speakers of the house and presidents of the senate to the effect that two-thirds vote means two-thirds of those present or two-thirds.

GERMAN GOVERNMENT PATTERNED ON THE U. 8.1

Geneva, Dec. 27 (Havas).-Reports received from Germany indicate that the present government there is to constitute a federal republic on virtually the same plan as the United States. There would be a congress composed of two chambers, a volkhaus the chamber of representatives, and a stadtenhaus, or chamber of states, which would take the part of a senate. The president would be elected by the
